Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The students, teachers, administrators, other school personnel and taxpayers of the Waubay School District have experienced the tragedy of losing their school building to a fire; and,

WHEREAS, These people have not let this loss cause dissension or bad feelings in the community; and,

WHEREAS, Instead, these fine South Dakotans have come together with a renewed vitality in their community and school spirit that has inspired all other South Dakotas; and,

WHEREAS, These fine South Dakotans have worked very hard during the past week to move beyond the tragedy and create a new beginning for the school and community that begins with classes today; and,

WHEREAS, These fine South Dakotans have shown everyone that a school is truly not just a building but a group of people who care about each other's growth and learning; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the citizens of South Dakota to recognize and praise this fine spirit of extra effort for the common good:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the week of February 1-8, 1982, as

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-second Day of January, In the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two
